We need to get some fishing in before the new bow season starts! Jack

There will be a one-week Special Antlerless Deer Archery Season on private land only in selected counties September 14-19, 2009. Hunters may kill one additional antlerless deer that must be checked on a Class RB or Class RRB stamp.

There will be a one-week Special Antlerless Deer Muzzleloader Season on private land only in selected counties September 21-26, 2009. Hunters make kill one additional antlerless deer that must be checked on a Class RM or Class RRM stamp.

I am with you on that one Jack because I just spent the last week scouting places for my deer stands. There is one spot I really like with lots of rub marks and a deer path but it doesn't have a suitable place for a deer stand. I am thinking about getting one of those deer blinds or using an old with some modifications, just for this spot. I am going out there today to put up my camera and see if the monster buck shows up that I think is there.

Blade, I got one you can stand up in to shoot out for sale, used only 1 season and it has shoot through windows and a seat. I tried it but dont like hunting from the ground. Its a Big MIke Barronett Blinds.
